

Brave Little Baby Box

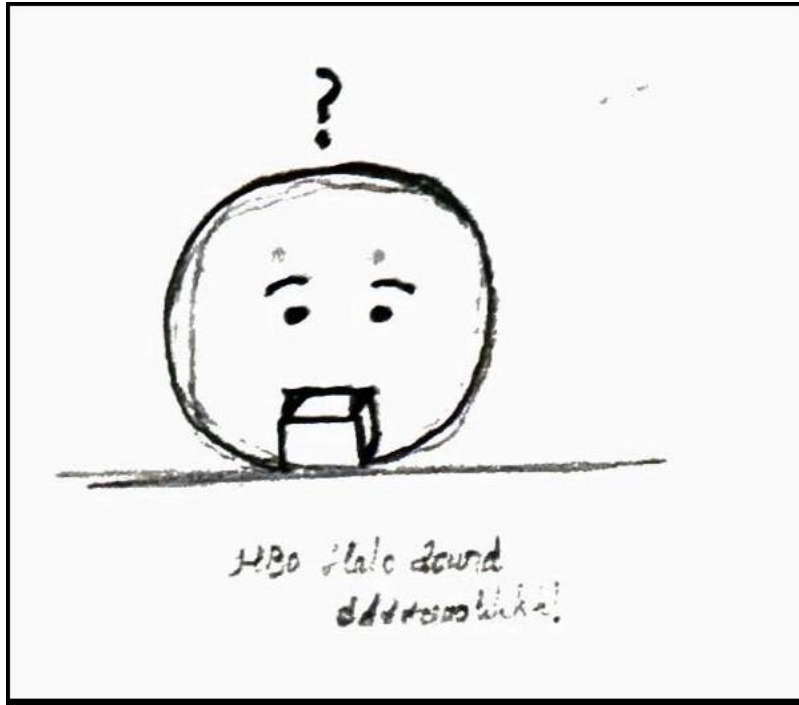

- Written By Milin Joshi

Once upon a time, there was a box family. There was papa box, mama box and baby box.

One day, the boxes went to a fair. There the baby box saw a globe.

So round and shiny, the baby box was astonished by how good the globe looked.

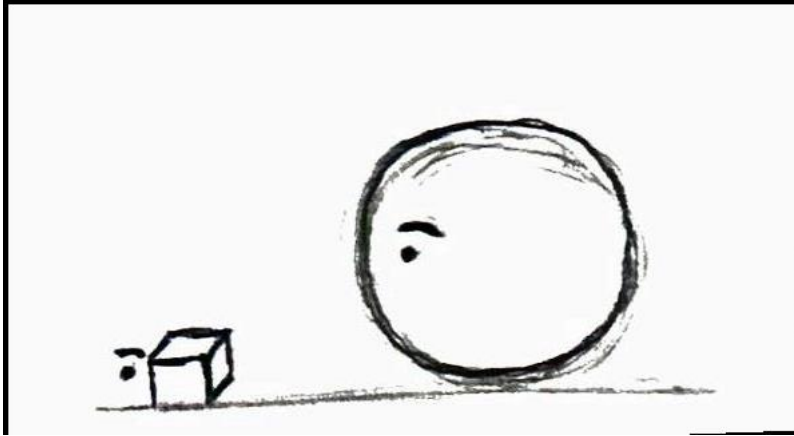

Baby box goes to globe and asks him "Hey, Hey, how can I be like you?"

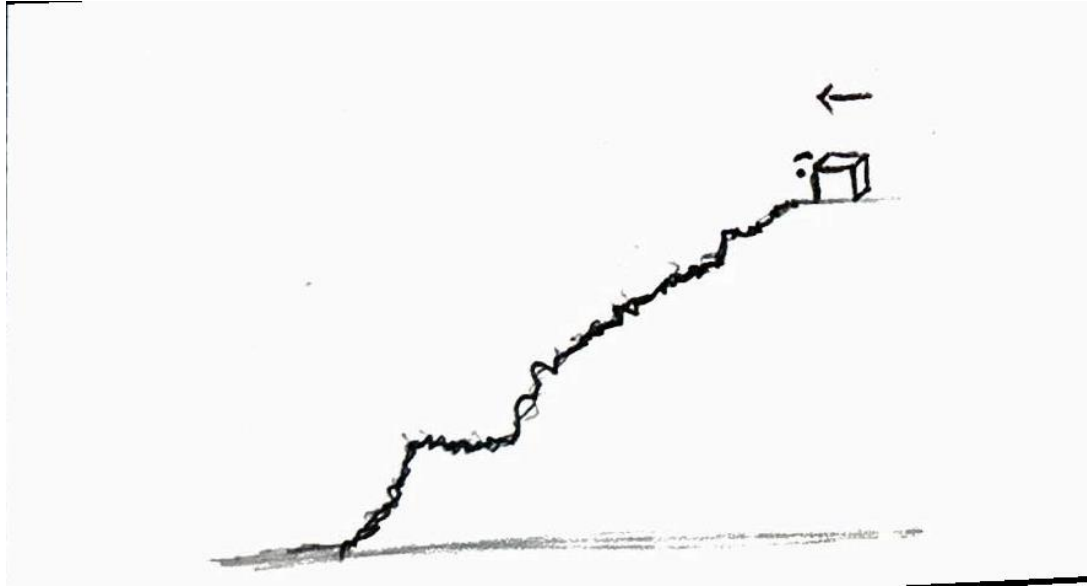

The Globe says "see that path kid, you need to make sure you reach the end of that path, only then you can be like me, round and shiny"

Globe asks "would you be able to walk the path kid?"

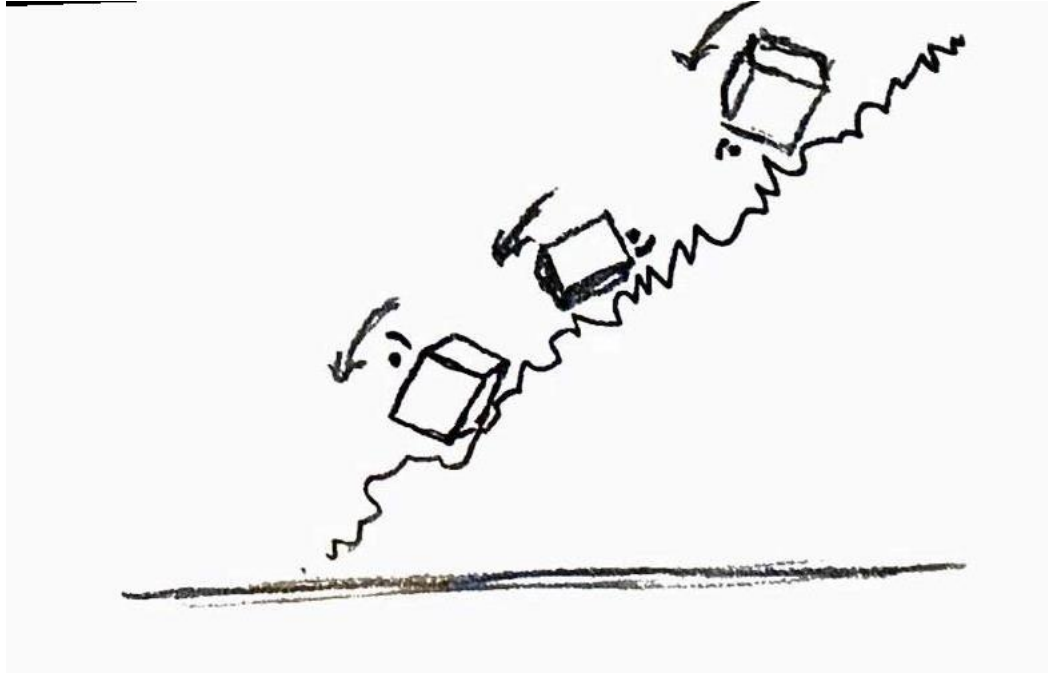

The baby box without answering starts walking. he was determined to walk the path and reach the end.

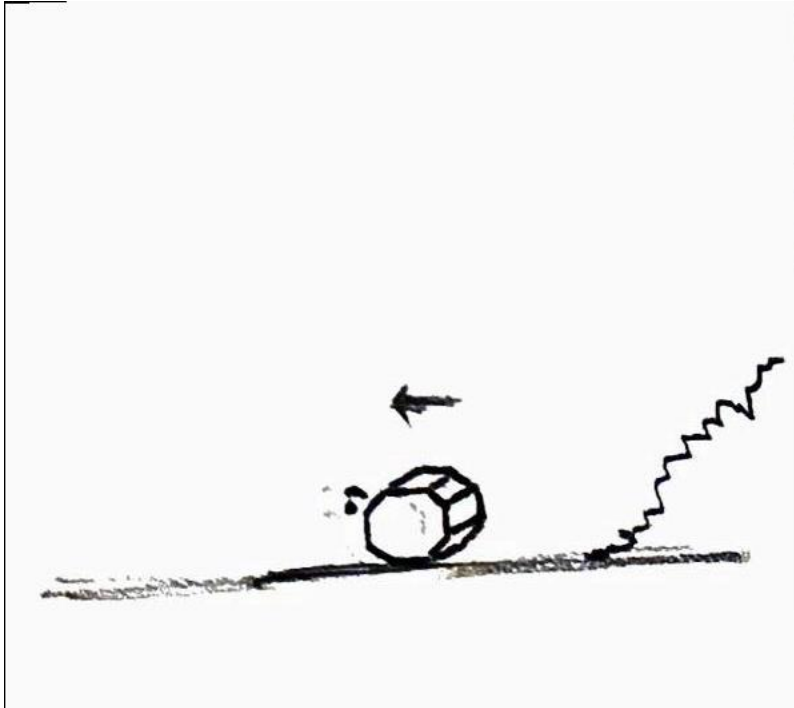

The baby box walked and walked. on his way he faced many obstacles.

He reached a point where there was a downward slope full of potholes, uneven stones and treacherous terrain

He made sure he carefully went down, and slowly.
but this was no easy road.

He bumped into one of the rocks and went tumbling down like a wheel.

He did reach the end but he was all hurt, but chipped and sliced off from various places on his box body.

Brave little baby box, continues to push forward to walk on the path as he remembers to reach the end as told by the round and shiny globe

Suddenly he comes across a beautiful field of roses. it looked very beautiful and it smelled very pleasant and sweet.

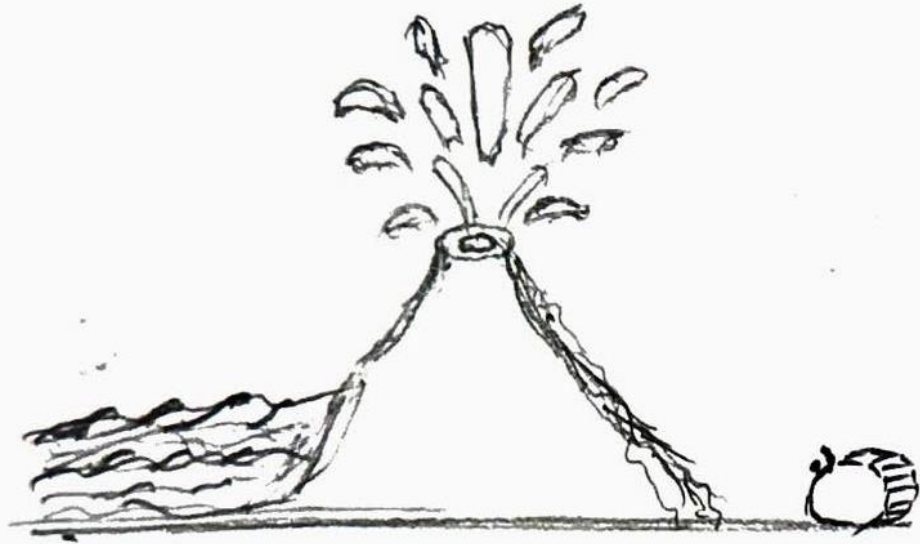

However, realizing that there was no way around this field of roses, he starts going through this field of roses. now the stem of roses are full of sharp and strong thorns. seeing no other way he pushes through them.

Ooh, aah! he gets cuts on his body by thorns from the stems of the roses he passes from. still very determined to reach the end, he pushes himself through the field of roses.

After a few sharp cuts, he manages to reach the end of the field and come out on the other side of the field of roses. covered in sharp, pointy thorns, he removes them one by one and takes a rest. he then recalls the words of the Globe "make sure you reach the end of that path"

Coming this far, he was now more than ever committed to completing this Journey

He continues onward.

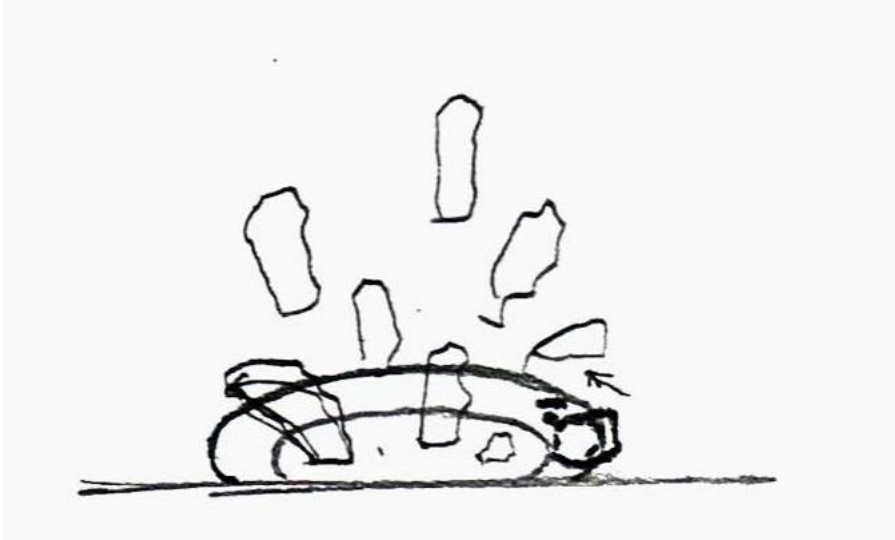

suddenly there was a huge shadow on the path that he was walking on.

He looks up to find a huge volcano, spewing lava in all directions, non-stop.

Unsure how to cross the volcano, as he could not find any ways to go around, he starts climbing.

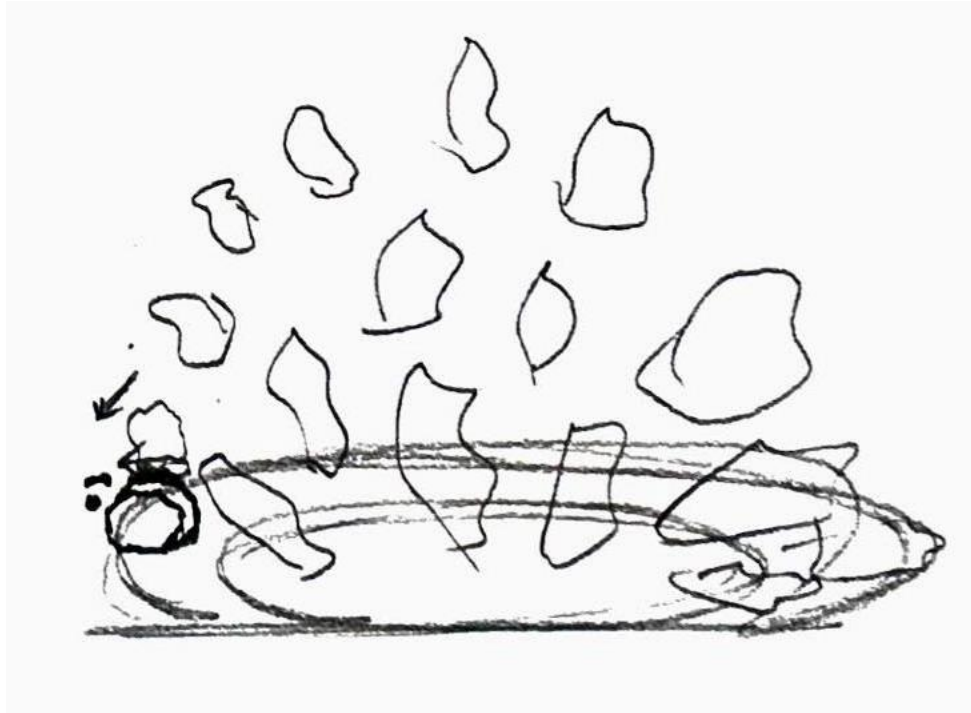

As he climbs, the volcano spewed lava down from top. although he was being very careful, the lava still spills on him, burning and melting parts of his box body.

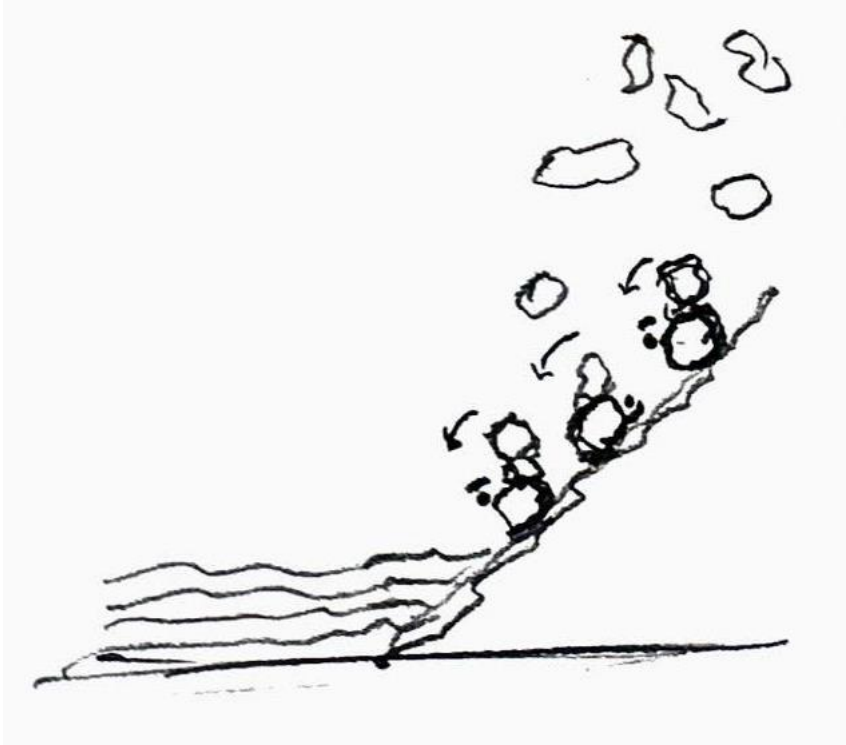

After some time, he reaches the summit of the volcano. lava spewing all around, he jumps to the other side of the rim of the volcano opening.

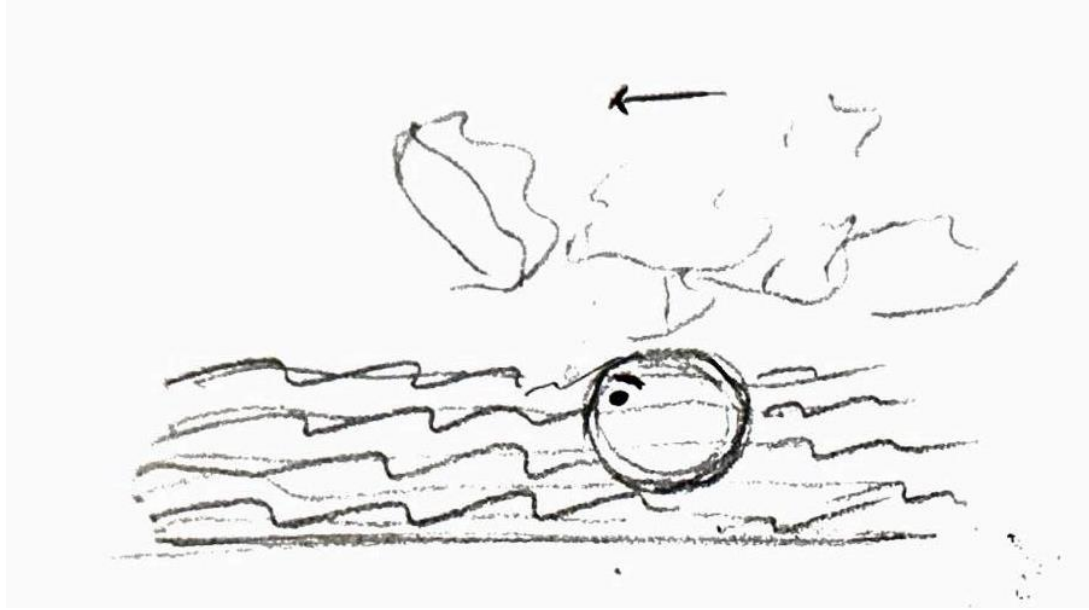

The unforgiving volcano manages to spew lava on him during this jumps and burns and melts him.

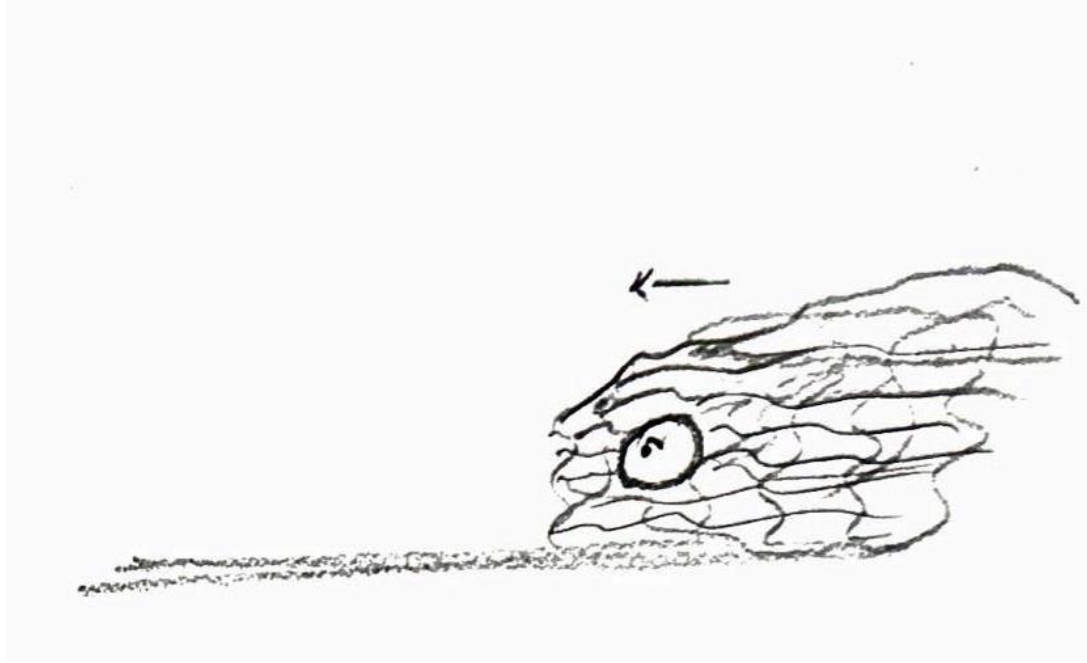

However, he still reaches on the other side of the rim. hurt and burnt, he starts making his way downwards on the other side of the volcano.

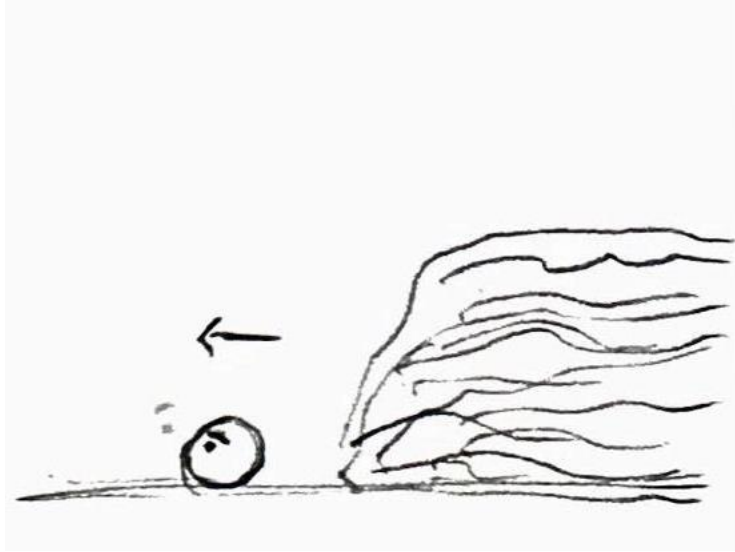

The volcano was still spewing lava on him during his downward journey, burning and melting his box body.

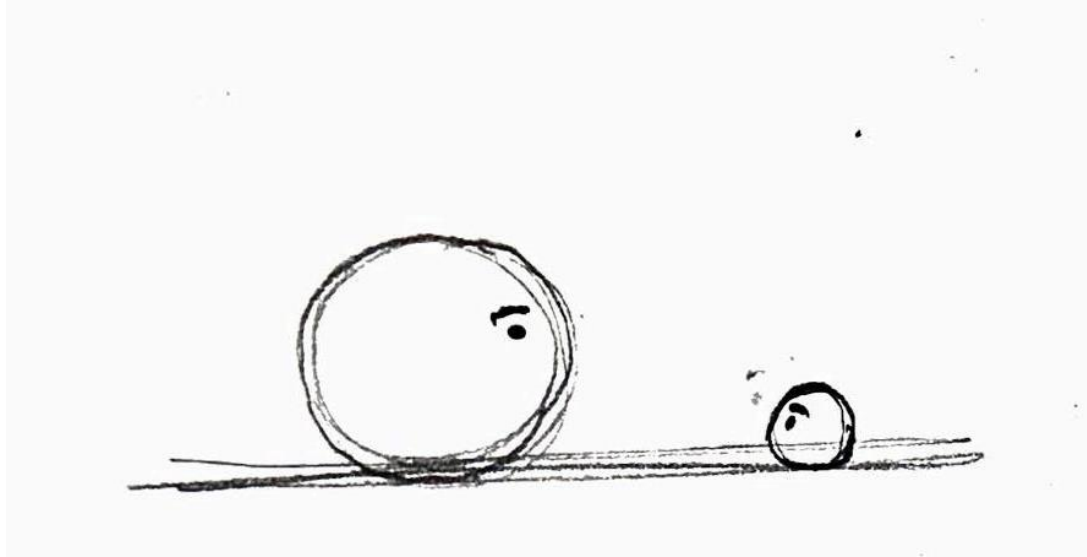

However at the foot of the mountain there was a roaring river. he jumps into this river and starts flowing with it.

With barely managing to keep his box body above water, he tries to get to the shore.

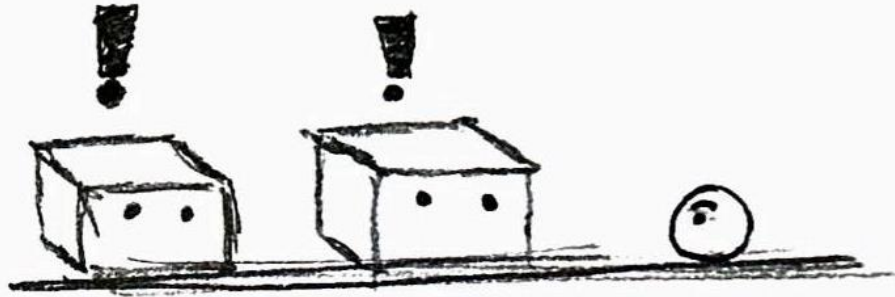

He finally does get to the shore and rests for a while. this is when a strong wind starts blowing. His feet firm on the ground, the baby box tries to withstand the force of the wind. After a few moments the wind dials down until it finally vanishes.

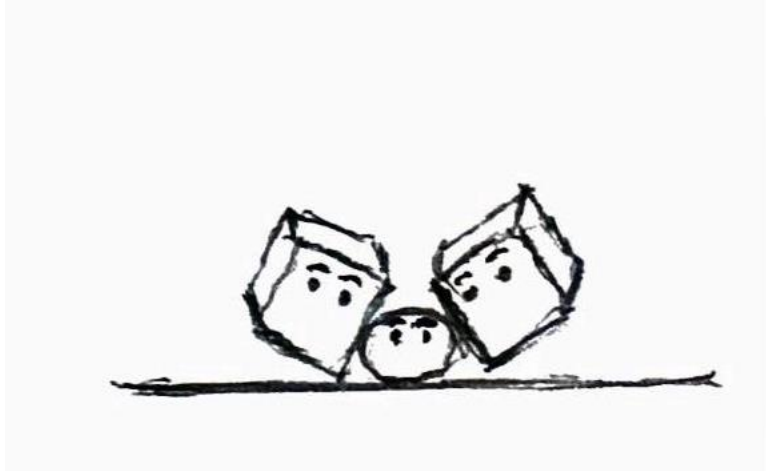

This is when to his surprise he finds out that the globe is standing right in front of him smiling says "Well done kid, well done".

Confused by the globe's words, he looks at himself and sees that he himself has turned into a small globe.

Looking back on his Journey he realized that all that obstacles he faced had taken some chunks out of his box body and turned him into a shiny and round globe. He was overjoyed.

He goes to his parents, and they are surprised to see their kid in such a round and shiny appearance.

The parents hug the baby box proud of their baby box who has now turned into round and shiny baby globe.

THE END.
